Skill Development-cum-Training Program on Cultivation, Primary Processing, Quality Aspects, and Marketing of Commercially Important Aromatic and Medicinal Crops

Mandate: The CSIR-Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants (CSIR-CIMAP), Research Centre, Hyderabad (Telangana) was established in July 1982 on a 12-hectare area as a regional resource Centre of CSIR-CIMAP, Lucknow for showcasing and promoting green technologies in Deccan Plateau. The Centre has been at the forefront in developing farmer-friendly, sustainable, production technologies and high-yielding varieties of economically important medicinal and aromatic plants (MAPs) with export potential under resource constraint conditions for transforming wastelands and drylands into profitable green herbal farms. The Centre introduced and acclimatized several MAPs in the semi-arid tropics of the Deccan Plateau and promoted large-scale cultivation. The Centre is disseminating CIMAP's technologies through awareness camps, training programs, exhibitions, media broadcasts, and reports. The R&D endeavors coupled with extension activities of the Centre led to large-scale cultivation of MAPs in the states of Andhra Pradesh & Telangana. About 5000 farmers benefitted by cultivating MAPs in around 10000 hectares using CIMAP's varieties and technologies. The Centre has established market linkages with these farmers. The Centre continued to innovate to excel in MAPs green technologies and endeavor to be a friend of the farmer, a facilitator of industry & farmer linkages, and a partner in the development of the region. The Centre is striving to be the preferred destination of farmers and industry to discover new dimensions of opportunities in the MAPs sector.
